SUBJECT REDWOOD AERODYNAMIC - Canadian Citizen in Contact with Soviet Citizen
ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES
The following was reported by a confidential source of this office (FYI only: AECASSOWARY/2 who received the information from a confidential source of his). When Katerina KOLOSOVA, Chairman of the Society for Cultural Contacts with Ukrainians Abroad, [] [], visited in Canada in December 1964 with a delegation of Soviet Ukrainians she talked with Ambrose HOLOVACH, Minister of Culture and Education (sic) in Alberta. Sometime following her return to the Soviet Union she mailed him a gift parcel. Our source feels that this gesture on the part of KOLOSOVA (who it is strongly suspected is working with or for the KGB) is an effort on the part of the KGB to get into the good graces of HOLOVACH for whatever ulterior motives they may have in mind, although HOLOVACH is known to be anti-Communist. The fact that the parcel was mailed to HOLOVACH by KOLOSOVA was confirmed by Stepan KRYZHANIVSKY (Soviet Ukrainian professor of literature and literary critic who was also in Canada with KOLOSOVA's group) in a letter to A/2's source. In his letter, KRYZHANIVSKY states that another all Soviet Ukrainian tourist group is planning to visit the United States and Canada in the fall of this year. KRYZHANIVSKY also mentioned the fact that he was in correspondence with Petro Alekseyevich KRANCHUK with which name you are familiar.
